

Clipart and Graphics

Free Links for Projects and Webpages

Discovery School

Hundreds of free clipart and graphics appropriate for education webpages and projects.

<http://school.discovery.com/clipart/>

Buncha Clipart

Cute clipart in a hurry, very simple drawings to use in projects

http://www.noeticart.com/na_clipart.htm

Science Clipart

Choose from Plants and Animals, Humans, The Earth, Atoms and Molecules, Energy and Forces, Light and Sound, Computers, Industry and Technology, Inventions, Transportation and Space and Astronomy.

<http://www.oup.co.uk/oxed/children/oise/pictures/>

Classroom Clipart

A Source for Free Clip Art, Pictures and Illustrations

<http://classroomclipart.com/>

Animal Pictures Archive

Long list of animal photos and line drawings

<http://animalpicturesarchive.com/animal/EngNames/>

Flags of the World

Complete collection of animated world flags. Hundreds of animated flags.

<http://www.multimedialace.com/flg-wf.htm>

Cheryl's Clipart

Over 21,000 clipart images in high resolution
<http://www.artbycheryl.com/index.shtml#clipart>

Educational Clipart and Graphics

Many wonderful links to educational clipart and graphics
http://www.busyteacherscafe.com/teacherlinks/graphic_links.htm

Paid Subscription Database Links

Kids Infobits Teacher Toolkit – cite sources

The way to use a writer's ideas and words without stealing is to cite the source. To cite means to give credit to the person whose ideas you are using in your report. This includes direct quotes from an author or the ideas of an author.

<http://galenet.galegroup.com/servlet/KidsInfoBits?locID=tlc079033288&helppg=citeasource.htm&ste=59>

UnitedStreaming

Collection of over 1000 clipart and graphics.

Login to UnitedStreaming. Type your keyword in the search box and use the down arrow to find the clipart section.

www.unitedstreaming.com

Teaching Books.net

25 categories of links to relevant, reliable, and professional sites for children's literature

<http://www.teachingbooks.net/vl.cgi>